To Whom It May Concern

It is with great pleasure that I offer my wholehearted recommendation for Ms. Pallabi Sarkar. As her professor and mentor during her Master of Science in Hospitality Management at NSHM Knowledge Campus, Kolkata (2019-2021), I found her to be among the most dedicated and intellectually curious students I have had the privilege of instructing.

Throughout her graduate studies, Ms. Sarkar distinguished herself through exemplary academic achievement and a profound enthusiasm for scholarly pursuit. She possesses a rare blend of sharp analytical acumen, articulate communication skills, and innate leadership capabilities. Her ability to synthesize complex human resource concepts and apply theoretical frameworks to practical business contexts consistently set her apart from her contemporaries. She demonstrated a particular aptitude and keen interest in the domains of Human Resource Management, Organizational Behavior, and Data-Driven Decision Making.

Her master's thesis was a testament to her research-oriented intellect and her capacity for independent, self-directed work. In collaborative settings, she was an invaluable team member—proactive, insightful, and consistently maintaining a constructive and professional demeanor. These interpersonal strengths, coupled with her academic rigor, make her exceptionally well-suited for a culturally diverse academic environment like that of Germany.

I am thoroughly convinced that Ms. Sarkar possesses the intellectual curiosity, tenacity, and analytical prowess necessary to excel in a Master's program in Human Resources or Business Analytics. Her scholarly diligence, combined with a genuine passion for understanding the interplay between human capital and data, will allow her to make meaningful contributions to your university community and her future field.

I give Ms. Pallabi Sarkar my highest recommendation for admission to your esteemed institution. I am confident she will uphold the same standard of dedication, integrity, and excellence that characterized her tenure at our campus.

Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
Dr. Amit Chakladar
